National Board for Higher Mathematics (NBHM)
Scholarships For Pursing Doctoral Program (Ph.D) In Mathematics 2019-20
(held at Zone 1: Chandigarh, Delhi, Srinagar Centre)

Instructions and Eligibility Criteria

Note: Read Instructions and Eligibility Criteria given in the advertisement carefully before registration.

- Applicants for the NBHM Ph.D scholarship must be mathematically motivated and hold a masters degree in (pure or applied) mathematics or statistics or must be final year students of these degree courses. They must have a good academic record (first class or equivalent grade in all years from Plus Two level to the present i.e. 60%).
- Students having passed a B.Sc.(Honours) course with a second class (i.e. 55%) may also apply, provided they have a masters degree or are in the final year of the same.
- Students holding a four-year B.S. (or equivalent) degree, or those in the final year of such a programme, may also apply, but they are eligible to receive the NBHM scholarship only if they secure admission to a recognized Ph.D programme by August 2019.
- Students who wish to apply for the Ph.D/Integrated Ph.D programmes of HRI, IISER, Pune, IMSc, or NISER must apply and appear for the written test. For this purpose, apart from the students mentioned earlier, students holding a B.Sc./B. Stat./B.S./B.Tech./B.E. degree, or those in the final year of such degree courses, with a consistently good academic record from Plus Two level as mentioned above may also apply. Students for these doctoral programs need not apply separately to these institutions again.

I have read and understood all the instructions and eligibility criteria very carefully.
